Dear Hiring Manager,

I am very interested in applying for the Promotions Data Entry Coordinator at FoodWorks. This role is a fantastic opportunity to incorporate my passion for people and memorable experiences. I am confident that my background experience in hospitality will prove invaluable for your organisation.

My previous service-orientated roles allowed me to develop a multitude of transferrable skills including:

- Building rapport with repeat customers
- De-escalating customer pains
- Fast-paced and exceptional service
- Merchandising
- Multi-tasking customer orders
- Bringing delight to every customer
- Exceptional organisational proficiency

In addition to my hospitality skills, I also have fantastic interpersonal skills demonstrated during my time in the events industry. My customer service skills cover conflict resolution, rapport building, troubleshooting orders, and always ensuring the customer leaves with a smile.

I certainly believe that I can exceed the expectations for this role. Enclosed is my résumé for review. Thanks for taking the time today to consider my application.

Sincerely,

blzguy
